

“Small acts of service can make an enormous difference in the life of a child and in the future of our city. Everyone has something to give - their time, values, knowledge, a skill - every resident in Chicago has a role to play in ensuring all of our youth have the tools and support they need to succeed.”

– Mayor Rahm Emanuel –

One Good Deed Chicago is a one-stop shop online portal where volunteers can sign up for service opportunities with nonprofit organizations across Chicago.

Volunteer opportunities are available focusing on a range of issues, including:

- Adult Education
- Animal Protection
- Arts and Culture
- Children and Youth
- Community Development
- Domestic Violence
- Environment and Sustainability
- Health and Mental Health
- Homelessness and Hunger
- Immigrant and Refugee Needs
- Mentoring
- Parks and Gardens
- Seniors
- Veterans

To find the perfect volunteer opportunity or register your organization, visit:

www.onegooddeedchicago.org

Questions? Email onegooddeedchicago@cityofchicago.org for more information.